

Solemnity of All Saints

1. For all the saints who from their labors rest, All
2. You were their rock, their fortress and their might;
3. O may your soldiers, faithful, true and bold,
4. O blest communion, familiarly divine!
5. And when the strife is fierce, the warfare long,
6. The golden evening brightens in the west;

who by faith before the world confessed, Your
You, Lord, their Captain in the well-fought fight; Fight as the saints who nobly fought of old, And
We feeblely struggle, they in glory shine; Yet Steals on the ear the distant triumph song, And Soon, soon to faithful warriors comes their rest; †

name, O Jesus, be for ever blest.
You in the darkness dread, their one true light.
win with them, the victor's crown of gold.
all are one with - in your great de - sign.
hearts are brave a - gain, and arms are strong.
Sweet is the calm of par - a - dise the blest.

Al - le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia!

7. But then there breaks a yet more glorious day:
The saints triumphant rise in bright array;
The King of glory passes on his way.
Alleluia! Alleluia!
8. From earth's wide bounds, from ocean's farthest coast,
Through gates of pearl streams in the countless host,
Singing to Father, Son, and Holy Ghost:
Alleluia! Alleluia!

Greeting

Priest: The Lord be with you.

All: And with your spirit.

All: And with your Spirit.
Priest: A reading from the holy Gospel
according to Matthew.
All: Glory to you, O Lord.

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

bow...

For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified
under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Spiritual Communion Prayer

Lord Jesus Christ,
King of the Universe and Master of all creation,
Healer of human hearts,
ever present in each moment of history and font of eternal mercy and grace for us, your people.
As we continue our fast from your Eucharistic nourishment and so often find ourselves distant from our parish families, continue to heal and help us.
Strengthen us and sustain us during this time of global illness. Cure our sick. Calm our fears. Strengthen care-givers everywhere. Forgive our selfish preoccupation with our own comfort. Enable us to be living signs and instruments of your healing love.
Teach us what you would have us learn from these moments of fear.
We trust in your love.
In your good time, restore us to our parish celebrations, And heal all hurts, now and forever.
We pray through Jesus the Christ, Savior of the world.

Prayer of St. Francis

*Make me an instrument of your peace.
Where there is hatred, let me sow your love.
Where there is injury, pardon;
Where there is doubt, faith;
Where there is despair, hope;
Where there is darkness, light;
Where there is sadness, joy.*

*O Divine Master,
Grant that I may not so much seek
To be consoled as to console.
To be understood as to understand.
To be loved as to love.
For it is in giving that we receive,
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
It is in dying that we are born to eternal life.*
